Gar Hoover Makes Top 3 in ESPN X Games Medal Design Contest

BEVERLY HILLS, MICH. – Gar Hoover has been selected as a finalist in the ESPN X Games Winter Exchange 2012 Medal Design Contest. Gar’s design was among one hundred submitted medal designs sent in from all over the globe. His design was voted into the top sixteen and has now made the cut into the top three.

Gar Hoover, 16 years old, is a junior at Southfield Christian High School in Southfield, Michigan. Gar is an avid free style skier and snowboarder and attended the 2010 Dew Tour events at Brek..., Colorado as a spectator. Gar thinks that the Winter X Games are some of the most exciting events on television and is thrilled for the chance to be part of this year’s event. Making it to the top three has made Gar a winner of an X Games prize package. And with support from voters he may see his winning design at the upcoming X Games. His friends and family vigorously encourage readers to vote for Gar’s medal at the ESPN Action Sports X Games Website.

Voting closes at midnight on November 30 and the winner will be announced on December 1, 2011. If selected, Gar’s medal design will be displayed around the necks of the ESPN Winter X Games athletes in Aspen during January 2012.
